

Peace of Art's Newsletter March - April 2023

Mediterranean Women's Ship (MWS)

15-17 April 2023, Beirut.

Within the framework of the Mediterranean Women's Ship program MWS, and under the auspices of the Minister of Youth and Sports, Dr. George Kallas, the President of Peace of Art NGO, Ms. Vera Al-Mawla, and the Executive Director Mr. Ebrahim Yahya, participated in the design and implementation of a training program with the Mediterranean Youth Foundation (MYF). The training included three focused topics: -Gender and stereotypes (with a focus on intersectionality) -Hate speech - Cultural pluralism. They also co-facilitated the sessions of the Union for the Mediterranean (UFM) to develop the framework of the Mediterranean Women's Ship program expected to be launched in 2025. The training was implemented with activists and experts from Algeria, Egypt, France, Italy, Jordan, Spain, and Lebanon. The program included content developed from Peace of Art's training programs as well as content from UNOY's resource "The Peacebuilders Guide to Tackling Harmful Narratives".

W O M E

N D A Y

International Women Day

www.peaceofartinternational.org

Musawat Documentary وثائقي مساواة

www.peaceofartinternational.org

Musawat project is a project implemented by Peace of Art NGO in the Baalbek-Hermel region - the Northern Bekaa area. It included training workshops for youth from 16 to 22 years old to enable them to understand some civic training: human rights, the Human Rights Convention, methods and means of research, discourse methods, advocacy and debate, in addition to some music lessons. These training workshops aim to organize dialogue sessions between youth and religious clerics, in the presence of a group of the region's activities.

M

U

S

A

W

A

T

P

Strangers Without Borders

Sunday, March 12, 2023 - Peace of Art main Center , Al Fakiha.

Under the framework of the "Musawat" project, "Peace of Art" organized a tragic theatrical show that simulates the challenges we are confronting in our societies, entitled "Strangers without a Beach", under the supervision of the trainer Muhammad Al-Siddiq, and in the presence of stakeholders from the region in addition to the parents of the students, and students from other projects. The show began with the national anthem, followed by an introductory speech delivered by Ms. Sabah Houweiji, then the students started the play, which ended with an expressive dance accompanied by a song composed by them. This play aims to simulate the societal problems facing many people from different religions, nationalities and races, besides to the dialogue between religions. Stay tuned for a final play for the "Musawat" project under the title of "The Bakery", which will be implemented by our students, and under the supervision of the trainer Muhammad Al-Siddiq. Stay tuned for the premiere of the two plays soon on our YouTube channel.

Happy Mother's Day

The Bakery

Sunday, March 19, 2022 - Peace of Art's main Center, Al Fakiha.

Under the framework of the "Musawat" project, Peace of Art NGO organized a comic theatrical show that represents the events currently occurring in our society, entitled "The Bakery". The show confronts the bread crisis and demonstrates how it affected the entire community. The performance was supervised by the trainer Mr. Muhammad Al-Seddiq, and different stakeholders from the region attended, in addition to the parents of the students, and students from other projects. The show started with the national anthem, followed by an introductory speech delivered by Ms. Sabah Houweijy. This play aims to simulate the societal problems faced by many people of different religions, nationalities and races, in addition to the dialogue between religions. Stay tuned for the first premiere of the play "Strangers without Beach" on Peace of Art's YouTube channel, launching next week.

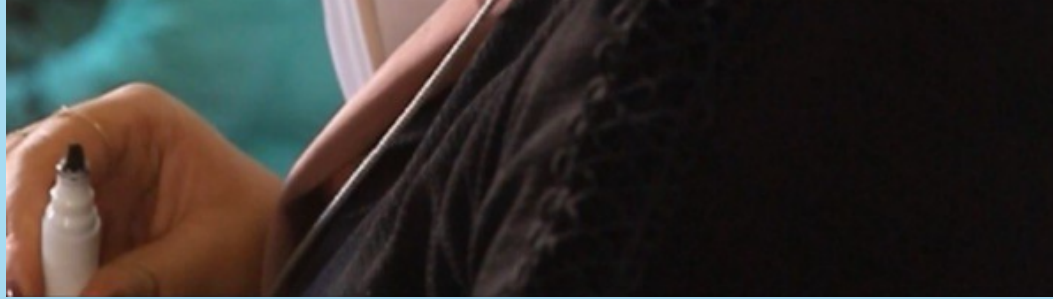

Innovation Academy Project Recap

INNOVATION ACADEMY PROJECT

This project is named
"Innovation Academy"

Philosophy of Non-Violence and Human Rights Training

December 5-31, 2023 - Gemmayzeh, Beirut.

The Executive Director, Mr. Ebrahim Yahya attended with Peace of Art's members, the course of "Philosophy of Non-Violence and Human Rights" at the Academic University College of Non-Violence and Human Rights (AUNHOR), in partnership with PAX FOR PEACE. The course included the following tracks: - The Philosophy of Nonviolent Communication and the Foundations of the Civil State with Dr. Ugarit Younan. - Identifications and theories of dynamics within and between groups, theories of needs and conflict with Ms. Nahla Harb. - Human rights and related deeds in the United Nations, the International Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Racial Discrimination, the importance of frequency and oral history with the Professor Rafik Zakharia. - And with Dr. Abdul Hussein Shaaban, on the concept of minorities and their rights, and the results of the most prominent international conferences on human rights and transitional justice.

Invite your friends to subscribe into our newsletter Via WhatsApp / Via Email
Want to change how you receive these emails? You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.